Article 3 - Terms of Membership

Social Membership is completed through the GPC website or by completing a specific form. Membership payment is made on a yearly basis and remains active for 12 months from the purchase date.

Article 4 - Membership Application Review

The Polo Club meticulously evaluates each membership application, considering the candidate's values and dedication to the club and its pursuits. Admission is not automatic and is contingent upon a thorough assessment. The club retains the right to approve or decline applications without providing a rationale. Preference is given to individuals who uphold the values of respect, sportsmanship, and camaraderie promoted by the Polo Club. The club embraces an inclusive ethos, welcoming diversity in ethnicity, culture, gender, and more. Applications supported by a current member's recommendation or sponsorship are more likely to be accepted. Endorsement by a respected member typically signifies the candidate's caliber and eases their assimilation into the club. The evaluation process may involve conversations with the candidate or other members, as well as an examination of their potential contributions to the club's endeavors.

Article 5 - Social Members' Access to the Polo Club

Social members have access to the Polo Club based on their selected category to attend various events such as tournaments, training sessions, and more (excluding private events). To gain entry, social members only need to carry their digital membership card and display it when necessary. A yearly event calendar is available for social members to view, allowing them to attend events without prior booking. Events necessitating reservations will be clearly indicated.

Invitations from all social member categories are freely usable throughout the year. Social members must inform the Polo Club about their invitation usage promptly by emailing sponsoring@genevapolo.com with the guest's name, email address, and the invitation date. This notification should be sent at least 5 hours before the social member and their guest(s) arrive.

Article 6 - Invitations for Family and Coworkers

Members in various Social Membership categories enjoy a set number of complimentary invitations annually. These invitations can be extended to family members or associates for their attendance at Polo Club events and tournaments. Once validated, these invitations are specific to the member and cannot be transferred.

- Classic Social Membership: 5 invitations per year.
- Exclusive Social Membership: 10 invitations per year.
- Corporate Small: 5 individuals designated by the organization enjoy full annual access. Additionally, 5 extra invitations are extended to individuals affiliated with or independent of the company.
- Corporate Medium: 10 individuals appointed by the organization enjoy complete yearly privileges. Also, 10 extra invites for individuals affiliated with or independent of the company.
- Corporate Large: 10 individuals appointed by the organization enjoy complete yearly privileges. Also, 10 extra invites for individuals affiliated with or independent of the company.

Additional invitations for each category can be acquired with the Polo Club's approval for a fee of CHF 40 per invitation.

Section 7 - Member Perks

Each Social Membership category grants specific benefits outlined in Article 2. The Polo Club retains the right to adjust these benefits based on availability and circumstances.

Article 8 - Payment Terms

The membership fee must be paid in full upon registration using a credit card, bank transfer, or any other accepted payment method at the Polo Club. The cost of each Social Membership is specified in Swiss Francs, inclusive of all taxes.

Article 9 - Membership Duration

Each Social Membership lasts for 12 months from the purchase date and will be automatically canceled at the end of this term if not renewed by the member.

Article 10 - Termination and Reimbursement

The member has the option to end their Social Membership at any point, with no refund available unless in cases of valid force majeure. The Polo Club retains the authority to end a member's membership due to rule violations or improper conduct at events.

Article 11 – Adherence to the Polo Club's Internal Regulations

By enrolling as a Social Member, individuals and their guests are implicitly agreeing to adhere to the Polo Club's general rules and these sales terms and conditions. The Polo Club retains the authority to impose penalties, including potentially revoking Social Membership, for violations or failure to comply with the club's regulations.

Article 12 - Amendment of Terms and Conditions

The Polo Club retains the authority to amend these General Conditions of Sale at any moment. Any changes will be communicated to the members and will take effect immediately.

Article 13 - Safeguarding of Personal Data and Image Rights

Data gathered through Social Membership is handled in compliance with current personal data protection laws. Members have the privilege to access, correct, and erase their personal information. The Polo Club and its activities receive media coverage. Social Members grant permission for their image and media content to be utilized across various platforms. Should a member decline, notification must be given to the Polo Club, which will strive to honor the member's decision.

Article 14 - Involvement

The Polo Club is dedicated to offering the advantages included in every Social Membership. Nevertheless, the Polo Club cannot be accountable for the failure to realize a benefit in cases of force majeure or circumstances beyond its control. It is worth noting that polo activities are subject to weather conditions. The Polo Club pledges to contribute 10% of social membership fees to the associations and foundations endorsed by the club.

Article 15 - Responsibility and Associated Risks

Polo entails risks for both players and spectators, such as balls leaving the field and fast-moving horses. Members are duly informed of these risks and absolve the Polo Club of any liability.

Article 16 - Jurisdiction and Applicable Law

The General Conditions of Sale are governed by Swiss or French law. Any dispute regarding their interpretation or enforcement will fall under the exclusive jurisdiction of the relevant courts.
